

I find telemarketing calls very annoying and feel that we are entitled to have peace in our own homes. I would never buy anything solicited by telephone for the sole reason that it is done in such a manner.